Miscellaneous Policies

- Medical reimbursement accident insurance is included in the camp fee.
- The undersigned acknowledges that he/she has read and agreed to the release accompanying this application and has included a signed copy.
- The Camp will release children to either parent or persons authorized by same on site at any time during the day if parental arrangements for pick up have been made beforehand with the camp office. All visitors must sign in at the office.
- Medical forms, complete with records of up to date immunizations must be completed with the doctor's and parent's signature by May 1, 2010. Due to Health Department regulations, failure to comply will effect enrollment status.
- I understand that the Camp will make my phone number and address available to the camp population for car pool and play date purposes unless directed otherwise in writing.
- The camp is given irrevocable permission and authorization to use the child's name, photograph, portrait or image in connection with the camp's brochure, website, video or any other means of promotion or advertising.
- Purchase Day Camp reserves the right to refuse the enrollment of any child or to cancel this enrollment agreement at any time based on its sole and exclusive determination that the child's physical, mental, or emotional condition, would prevent that child from participating safely and satisfactorily in the programs offered; would prevent the child from interacting positively with other campers or TEAM Members; or would negatively impact on Purchase Day Camp's ability to offer its fundamental services. The camp can initiate the cancellation of this agreement and the dismissal of the child if, during the camp season, the child or his/her agents exhibits un acceptable behavior which prevents our TEAM Members from safely supervising him/her or proves detrimental to himself/herself, other campers or TEAM Members as determined by the Camp Director.
- The Purchase Day Camp is required to obtain a permit to operate from the New York Department of State. The Camp is also required to be inspected twice each year by the permit issuing authority. Information concerning these inspections is filed with the Westchester County Department of Health, Bureau of Public Health Protection, 118 N. Bedford Road, Mount Kisco, NY 10549.

I have read and agree to the above policies as stated.

RELEASE

In consideration of participating in the activities at the Purchase Community, Inc. (DBA Purchase Community House or Purchase Day Camp and herein referred to as "PCH") and to use the equipment and facilities, the undersigned adult participant or parent or guardian in the case of a minor, agrees and acknowledges the following:

1. I hereby acknowledge and accept that the activities and use of some of the equipment at the PCH may involve inherent risks and could result in injury. I know the nature of the activities that my child is participating in and believe that my child is qualified to participate in the activities. I expressly state that my child is in good health and has no limitations that would preclude my child's safe use of the equipment and facilities of the PCH. I acknowledge that if I deem the facilities and the equipment of the PCH to be unsafe I will not have my child participate in the related activity.
2. I hereby release, indemnify and discharge the PCH, its employees, volunteers, directors, affiliates, agents and successors and assigns, from any and all liabilities, suits, claims, and damages (including attorneys' fees) incurred by me or my child arising out of the use or intended use of the PCH, its equipment or its facilities, including, without limitation, all claims for property damage, personal injuries or wrongful death, other than as a result of gross negligence, or intentional misconduct of the PCH.
3. I understand that the PCH and its personnel have the right to deny access to its facilities to any individual permanently or for a specified period of time, for any breach of any of the rules and regulations of the PCH and for any conduct that is viewed as unsafe or inappropriate.
4. I expressly state that I have read this document and I understand all of its provisions and that I fully acknowledge the nature and extent of the activities conducted at the PCH and the use of the facilities.
5. I hereby voluntarily assume those risks and understand that I will be solely responsible for injury, loss, damage or death to my child while my child is using the facility and participating in the activities therein.
6. I hereby give permission and authorization to the Purchase Community, Inc. to use my child's name, photograph, portrait or image in connection with the Purchase Community Inc, brochures, websites, video or any other means of promotion or advertising.
7. I hereby affirm that I am the participant or parent or legal guardian of the child stated below.
