

Why Purchase Day Camp?

Because The Camp Experience Gives You A Competitive Edge

Working at Purchase Day Camp is much more than a job. It is an opportunity to gain invaluable skills that make you the complete candidate to a future employer or a college admissions counselor. PDC offers real responsibility and impact, making you stand out. We teach and foster life skills like: critical and creative thinking, collaboration, communication and problem solving. Leadership is learned in a real-life context, where you will take initiative, encourage sportsmanship, and positively contribute to our PDC community. PDC is the ultimate resume builder: it shows that you can lead, collaborate, and adapt, all while making a difference in a child's life.

Skill	What Camp Provides	Why It Matters
 Leadership & Accountability	Counselors are responsible for the safety and well being of children.	Demonstrates maturity and readiness for independence.
 Collaboration & Communication	Works closely with peers and supervisors.	Builds teamwork skills valuable for group projects and clear communication.
 Problem-Solving & Adaptability	Manages group dynamics and creates activities.	Develops creativity and quick thinking applicable to any field.
 Mentorship & Positive Impact	Guides younger children and mentors through challenges.	Fosters empathy, conflict resolution, and contributes to strong communities.
 Time Management & Work Ethic	Balances schedules and responsibilities in a fast-paced environment.	Teaches organization and discipline that helps young adults thrive academically and professionally.